Press Filming & Photography Policy

- ICE America is for B2B trade media only unless under prior agreement with the organizers (Clarion Gaming, part of Clarion Events) or if they are the guest of an exhibitor. In this event, the host exhibitor has to provide the organizers with written undertakings to take full responsibility for the behavior of invited non-trade media.
- Exhibitors will be required to collect their invited media at registration, be responsible for their actions at all times, escort them from the show, take receipt of their entry badge and return it to the ICE North America registration desk.
- Consumer media must provide written confirmation that all film taken at ICE North America is the intellectual property of the organizers (Clarion Gaming, part of Clarion Events) and cannot be used or broadcast without their prior permission.
- In the event of a member of the non-gaming media gaining access without the above permission or if they have gained entry using false information or credentials or have deliberately withheld information, they will be ejected from the exhibition.
- Entry is at the discretion of the ICE North America organizers who reserve the right to exclude any person(s) without prejudice.
